

Dear Gerard,

A big thank you from Macmillan

Thank you so much to everyone involved with the Dave Owens and Frank Goodall memorial fund for raising a brilliant £2,400.30 for Macmillan Cancer Support from your Chatsworth Challenge. We hope that you enjoyed it, and that you'll pass our thanks on to everyone who helped make it a success. Your effort and enthusiasm will allow us to help everyone with cancer live life as fully as they can, providing physical, financial and emotional support.

To put your kind donation into perspective, £2,400.30 could pay for a Macmillan Nurse for approximately 2 weeks, helping people living with cancer and their families receive essential medical, practical and emotional support. This is a fantastic contribution to Macmillan and a special way in which to remember Dave and Frank. It's only with your incredible support and your kindness that we can do all that we can for those people living with cancer their families.

How your support helps

At Macmillan, we understand that cancer can impact people's whole life - health, money, families, work; everything. We provide support that's about all these things, helping people live their life with cancer. We advise on work and benefits, and we are always here for emotional support when things get tough. We give people the support, energy and inspiration to feel more like themselves.

Thank you again for being part of the Macmillan team.

With best wishes,

Leah Henderson
